

MURRAY CITY MUNICIPAL COUNCIL VACANCY APPLICATION

We commend you for your desire to be involved in the government of Murray City. Our desire is to select the best qualified person from among the applicants to fill the vacancy that has occurred. To accomplish this, please read the information below and fill out the accompanying form.

QUALIFICATIONS

Utah Code states in Section 20A-1-510 that the municipal legislative body shall appoint a registered voter in the municipality who meets the qualifications for office established in Section 10-3-301 to fill the unexpired term of office vacated until the January following the next municipal election. You must be a resident of the council district from which the vacancy exists.

In an open meeting, the City Council will interview each person whose name was submitted for consideration.

ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES

Time Commitment: You should be available for the following meetings.

- The first and third Tuesday evenings for Council meetings;
- Committee meetings will include Redevelopment Agency, Committee of the Whole, retreats and Council Initiative Workshops depending on the issues to be considered (when possible, these meetings will be grouped on Council meeting days);
- Budget and Finance Committee meetings are held during the months of February, April, May and June, which may take an entire day or several evenings prior to the annual Budget approval in June;
- Quarterly meetings are held with the Murray City School District;
- Other meetings are scheduled as necessary through the year, including Municipal Building Authority, Board of Canvassers and committees that you may serve on.

Meeting preparation: To prepare yourself for acting on the various issues you should spend several hours in the average week studying and in discussion with City officials, staff and your constituents.

Other commitments: You will also be called on to represent the City in a variety of different functions, including civic events hosted by City boards, such as Arbor Day, County wide municipal governmental meetings and state-wide meetings of the Utah League of Cities and Towns.
